

Sports & development

OUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

2023

AFD Group's commitments in the Sport for Development sector

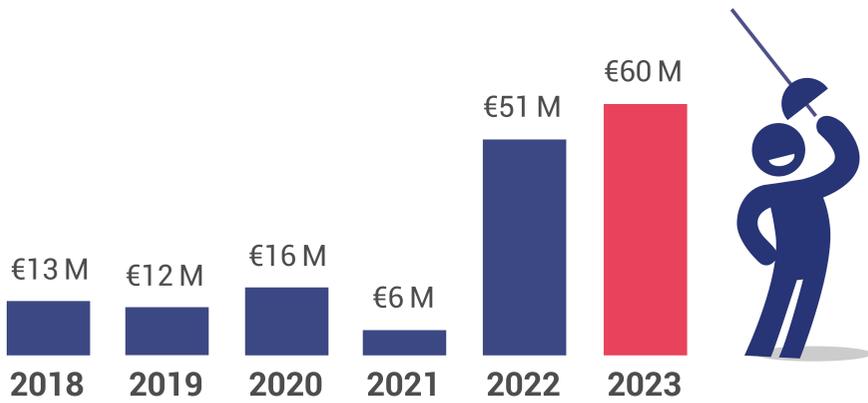

Since 2012

€189 M invested in 69 projects (excluding micro-projects)

In 2023

€60 M invested in 15 projects

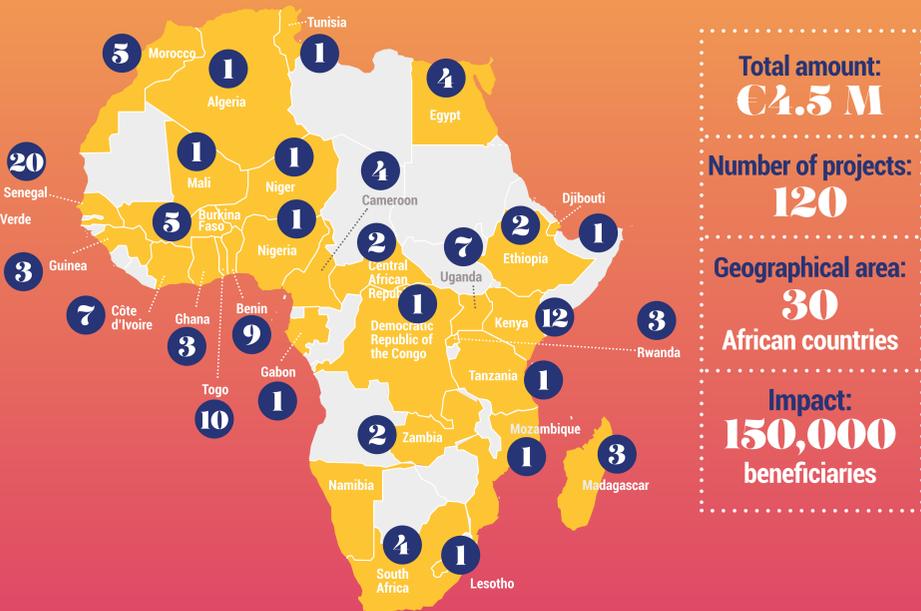

Trend in Group commitments

Strengthening the social impact of sports by supporting civil society organizations

Support for Sport for Development micro-projects

Contribution of projects in 2023 to the Sustainable Development Goals

Africa accounts for 95% of AFD's commitments in the sports sector

Breakdown by region

Innovative partnerships with key players in the sports movement

1

By building connections between project funders and initiators through the Sport en Commun platform which has 2,600 member organizations in 52 African countries.

2

Finance
in Common

COALITION FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT
THROUGH SPORT

By creating, through the Finance in Common Summit (FiCS), a coalition for Sustainable Development through Sport which encourages all the Public Development Banks to work together to boost investment in the sector.

3

FIFA

HAVOBA

International Olympic Committee

By forging partnerships with internationally renowned sports organizations, French sports federations, and athletes committed to sustainable development.

Sport as a transformative tool to...

Promote young employment through sports, especially among girls

Use sport as a tool for education and awareness-raising of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

Support the legacy strategies of the organizers of major sporting events

AFD x Paris 2024: Creating a lasting legacy for the Olympic Games

AFD and Paris 2024 are supporting several high-impact projects led by associations and athletes. They are also supporting investment in sports as a sustainable solution to a number of social challenges.

